Sienna
And The Fairies

by Sophie Cheng

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Sienna. She was not a very confident girl. She was always scared of making mistakes.

Therefore, she had no friends because she was too nervous to talk to anyone in the classroom.

One day, Sienna found a hole behind a tree in her garden. She started to wonder what was in the hole.

I will make mistakes again and again!

Out of curiosity, she decided to go down and take a look. When she was looking down in the hole, she fell down by accident and passed out immediately.

When she opened her eyes, she saw something very strange. She saw many tiny people and they were trying to heal her with magic from their tiny fingers.

They grinned and told Sienna, "Don't worry. You are save with us. This is a place for fairies and we are so happy to have you e."

After that, the fairies also told Sienna about the monster nearby. "Our greatest fairy said that only a human girl can fight the monster, and that's you!" screamed one of the fairies excitedly. She was over the moon.

"Look at me! I am so weak. How can I ever fight a monster?" responded Sienna nervously. The fairies encouraged Sienna to believe in herself, be confident and not to think negatively.

Sienna promised to help the fairies fight the monster. The fairies helped Sienna practice the skills needed for the battle. After practising, she was very strong and confident.

The battle came eventually. She went to the monster's cave with the greatest fairy. "Hey! Come fight with me, Monster!" yelled Sienna bravely.

The monster growled and ran towards her furiously. It attacked her with its gigantic and hairy paws.

However, Sienna did not shiver at all. She took a deep breath and confronted the monster with her sword. 'Bang', 'bang', 'bang', coming out from the fight. Sienna did not take a step back and she kept fighting.

Finally, Sienna won the battle victoriously. She received a beautiful, red crystal amulet from the fairies. "Thank you for helping us. Your bravery saved us all!" cried the fairies. Tears rolled down their faces.

When Sienna was about to give the fairies a hug, she woke up. She realized she was sleeping on her bed at home. The red crystal amulet was on her neck.

"What a strange dream!" thought Sienna delightfully.

Sienna learnt that she should be confident and try her best no matter what happened. She shouldn't be nervous every time but to be brave.

When she returned to school, she plucked up the courage to talk to her classmates. She had more friends now because she could talk to her classmates confidently.

I can do it!!
